3-23 Development and recovery for the distribution—The people from Kailashangyidun pass through this portion of the route to go to the famous Qaidam saltwater lake. It is about 300 mi. out of Lhasa (straight). Another people have been using this portion of the route for going to the temple for a long time. Though there is nothing in the mountains obstructing this in a right of way, and as the road is in a period awaiting seriously or growth of any kind, it is located in a difficult spot.

The amount of probationers whose probation does not extend over the full period of two years will be specially considered.

For leave made on the Continent, under the instructions of the Director of Forest Staffing, subsistence and travelling allowance will be paid by the Secretary of State for India in Council in such cases as he may from time to time fix. The fees of the local forest officials of the countries visited will also be paid by the Secretary of State.

The general allowance is subject to the following conditions:—

(a) that the progress of the probationer in his studies is satisfactory;
(b) that the probationer gives security to refund the payments in the event of his failing to qualify for an appointment in the Indian Forest Service, or not signing the official agreement as specified in paragraph 18 or failing to join the Indian Forest Service at the end of the period of probation;

Orders from and from the Provincial to the Imperial Service will take rank according to their year in the latter service. Probationers recruited under these regulations must consequently be placed to rank those already placed before them of officers promoted from the Provincial Service.

Probationers are allowed at the end of the period of probation to seek their preference in respect to the year in which they desire to be allotted, but the distribution is made in the several provinces according to the needs of the public service in the direction of the Secretary of State for India in Council and no guarantee can be given that probationers will, on appointment, be posted to their own provinces. Indians will not, however, be required to serve in Burma and Berar as will not be required to serve in India.

Officers are at all times liable to be transferred from one province to another at the pleasure of the Government of India.

25. Articles of Agreement.—A probationer is required, on qualifying for appointment as Assistant Conservator, to sign articles of agreement binding him to the terms and conditions of his appointment, he is not subject for India while engaged in so as by the Secretary of State. FINANCE DEPARTMENT.

MEMORIAL RULES.

Fort St. George, May 2, 1902.

The following Memorial Rules are published for general information:—

A.

RULES REGARDING THE RECEIVING OF MEMORIALS AND OTHER PAPERS OF THE SAME CLASS TO HIS MAJESTY THE KING, EMPEROR OF INDIA, OR TO THE ROYAL HIGHNESS THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR INDIA.

N.B.—These rules do not in any way affect or supersede orders issued on the same subject by the Military authorities for the guidance of the army.

I. No memorial will be received or attended to unless forwarded as hereinafter presented.

II. Every memorial to His Majesty or to the Secretary of State for India should contain all material statements and arguments relied upon by the memorialist and be complete in itself; and it should be accompanied by a letter requesting its transmission to the authority to which it is addressed.

III. Every memorial to His Majesty or to the Secretary of State for India should be presented through the Local Government having jurisdiction in respect of the subject-matter of the memorial. In cases where the Local Government is in a position to deal with the subject-matter of the memorial, it should be presented through the Local Government within whose jurisdiction the memorialist is or has last been residing or employed or, if there is no Local Government answering to these descriptions, then through the Government of India.

The Railway Board is regarded as the Local Government in respect of memorials from persons connected with it.

IV. Every memorial to His Majesty or to the Secretary of State for India presented through the Government of Madras, Bombay or Bengal should be forwarded direct by the Local Government, with a full statement of facts and an expression of opinion, except in the case of a memorial which—

(a) relate to—

- (i) any rule or standing order of the Government of India; or
- (ii) any Legislative Proceedings of the Governor-General in Council or an Act to which the Governor-General has assented; or
- (iii) a case which has been previously under the consideration of the Government of India whether on appeal or otherwise; or

(b) if granted, would cause expenditure for which the Imperial and not the Local Government would be primarily responsible; or

(c) require a pardon for the exercise of the Royal prerogative of pardon.

Every such memorial should be forwarded with a covering letter containing a full statement of facts and an expression of opinion to the Government of India in the proper department for transmittal to the Secretary of State for India.

XXX.—If the memorial is made of application by the applicant or members of a service under Chapter XXXI of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1911 (Act V of 1910), or which the Local Government is not empowered to dispose of, it may be presented under the rules contained in rule 52 in paragraph 5 of the Home Department letter No. 1045-01, dated the 19th September 1919, it should be transmitted to the Government of India and not to the Secretary of State for India.

V. Every memorial to His Majesty or to the Secretary of State for India presented through a Local Government, other than the Government of Madras, Bombay or Bengal, should be forwarded by the Local Government, with a full statement of facts and an expression of opinion, to the Government of India in the proper department for transmittal to the authority addressed.*

VI. Every memorial to His Majesty or to the Secretary of State for India from a person who has been employed in the army should, if it relates to a military subject, be forwarded through the Army, Divisional or Independent Brigade Commander under whose jurisdiction the memorial has been served. The Army, Divisional or Independent Brigade Commander will forward it, with a full statement of facts and an expression of opinion to the Government of India in the Army Department for transmittal to the authority addressed.†

VII. A memorial may be transmitted either in manuscript or in print, but must, with all accompanying documents, be properly authenticated by the signature of the applicant on each sheet, and must conclude with a specific prayer.

VIII. Memorials, together with their accompanying documents, should be in English.‡ If the accompanying documents must necessarily be forwarded in the Vernacular, an English translation should be appended, which should be attested by the signature of the memorialist.

IX.—It will be well for the memorialist to have his documents translated, and if they are found to be incorrect or faulty, to have the fact so stating on the memorial.

X. It is not necessary that memorials should be forwarded in duplicate or triplicate. The original will invariably be transmitted to England, a copy being made and retained by the Government of India, if necessary, for record.

XI. As a general rule, the transmission to England of a memorial duly forwarded through the proper channel should not be delayed by the transmitting Government in India, beyond a month after the receipt of the memorial.

XII. The Government in India are vested with discretionary power to withhold the transmission of memorials addressed to His Majesty or to the Secretary of State for India in the following cases:—

- (1) When a memorial is illegible or unintelligible.
- (2) When a memorial contains disrespectful or improper language.
- (3) When a second memorial is presented after a decision has already been given by the authority to which it is addressed, and when no new facts or circumstances are adduced which afford grounds for a reconsideration of the case. A memorial addressed to His Majesty by a person whose appeal to the Secretary of State for India has already been rejected, shall be held to be a second memorial to the same authority, and shall not be transmitted.
- (4) When a memorial is a mere application for relief, pecuniary or other, which is presented by a person manifestly possessing no claim or advancing a claim of an obviously unsubstantial character, or is so framed that its consideration is clearly impossible.
- (5) When a memorial is an application for employment under one of the Governments in India from a person not in the service of the Government or is a request for exemption from the provision of any law or order prescribing the qualifications to be possessed by persons in the service of Government or by persons occupying in any profession or employment.
- (6) When a memorial is an appeal against the discharge of a person appointed in India on probation, if the discharge was ordered before the termination of his probation.
- (7) When a memorial is a mere appeal from a judicial decision.

XXXI.—If the memorial is presented in application by the applicant or members of a service under Chapter XXXI of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1911 (Act V of 1910), or which is an application, it must be transmitted under rule 52 in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1911 (Act V of 1910), or which the Local Government or the Government of India are empowered to dispose of, it may be presented under the rules contained in rule 52 in paragraph 5 of the Home Department letter No. 1045-01, dated the 19th September 1919.

* Appeal by section 100 (1) of the Code of Criminal Procedure or Chief Commissioners No. 10, in the first instance, to the Government of Madras, Bombay or Bengal. An appeal to the Secretary of State will finally be the result of an appeal to the Government-General in Council having been rejected.

† Appeal by individuals from the service of the Army, Divisional or Independent Brigade Commander No. 10, in the first instance to the Government-General in Council having been rejected.

‡ As it is frequently happens that the demand of memorialist petition presented to the Government of India in English may be more easily understood by English translation, and as Local Governments and Administrations have greater facilities for translating the memorial in one order their different persons that the Government of India have, it is desired to request that, in order to avoid inconvenience and delay, all memorial petitions presented to a Local Government and Administration to the Government of India may invariably be accompanied by an English translation.

§ It is desired, however, to imply understood that it is not the intention of the Government-General in Council that any petition presented for transmission to the Government of India or the Secretary of State should be refused solely on the ground of being in the vernacular or because it is accompanied by a translation. The great majority of the population in India are not English speakers and it is not possible to obtain the services of an English person to write and it is more satisfactory that by a memorialist in India the free right of petition should be secured. But as the language of India is many and diverse, it is desirable that any memorial petition or memorial forwarded to express a petition by or through a Local Government should be accompanied by an English translation. (Home Department, No. 10, 1045-01, 1919, dated 19th September 1919.)

(8) * When a memorial is an appeal against the appellate order of a Local Government regarding a decision directing the dismissal, removal, reduction or other punishment of a Government servant or an employee of a local authority whose salary was less than Rs. 400 a month; or when it is an appeal against the order of the Government of India regarding an appeal * decision directing the dismissal, removal, reduction or other punishment of a Government servant or an employee of a local authority whose salary was less than Rs. 500 a month.

Rule 1—If the appellate order of the Local Government or the Government of India contains the order appealed against in the transmission of the appeal and a further order should, for the purpose of this rule, be regarded as an original order of the Local Government or the Government of India and the appeal must be transmitted.

Rule 2.—The Local Government or the Government of India should, in the transmission of the appeal, be accompanied by a certificate in English if it certifies the order appealed against to the advantage of the applicant.

Rule 3.—The words "appellate order" means any order passed as aforesaid.

Rule 4.—For the purpose of the latter part of this rule, an order of the Government of India regarding a decision of the Railway Board should be regarded as an original order of the Government of India, and the appeal must be transmitted.

(9) When a memorial is an appeal against a decision, which by any law or rule having the force of law, is declared to be final.

(10) When a memorial is addressed by an officer still in the public service and has reference to his prospective status, to pension.

(11) When a memorial is a mere appeal against the non-transmission by one of the Governments in India of a decision reached in such Government by law or rule.

(12) When a memorial is an appeal against the action of a private individual or of a body of private individuals, regarding the private relations of the memorialist and such individual or body.

(13) When a memorial is an appeal against the order of a Local Government or of the Government of India refusing to grant or to recommend a special pension or any pecuniary or other concession not claimable under any law or rule, or a suspension to pension, unless in the last case the memorial is from an officer dismissed or removed from Government service, who under those rules has a right of appeal against the substantive order of dismissal or removal.

(14) When a memorial makes a personal regarding legislation which a Local Government or the Government of India are not prepared to support.

(15) When a memorial is an appeal preferred more than six months after the date on which the memorialist was informed of the order against which his appeal is preferred, provided that a Local Government or the Government of India may at their discretion, extend this period to twelve months, if the delay will facilitate a settlement of the dispute or other good cause is shown.

Provided that, subject to what is said in clauses (1), (3), (4) and (15), an appeal to the Secretary of State by an officer appointed by him, irrespective of the rank of appointment, shall be withheld when the appeal involves a question of the interpretation of the terms of the officer's engagement.

XII. The Government of India may withhold the transmission of a memorial to His Majesty or to the Secretary of State for India, if the memorialist has not previously communicated the Government of India and the Local Government concerned on the same subject; provided that when a memorial contains a prayer for the exercise of the Royal prerogative of pardon and is addressed to His Majesty, it must be transmitted to the Secretary of State for India, unless His Excellency the Viceroy thinks fit to grant the prayer, in virtue of his authority to exercise this prerogative on His Majesty's behalf, or unless the memorial is from a person under sentence of death in which case it may be dealt with in the same way as a memorial falling under the provisions of the note to Rule XI (7).

The Government of Madras, Bombay or Bengal may withhold the transmission of a memorial which under rule IV they are authorized to forward direct, if the memorialist has not previously communicated the Local Government concerned on the same subject.

XIII. When a memorial is withheld the memorialist should be informed of the fact and of the reasons for it.

XIV. A list of memorials withheld under the discretionary power conferred by rules XI and XII, with the reasons for withholding them, will be forwarded quarterly to the Government of India on the case of memorials withheld by Local Governments and by the Government of India in the department concerned to the Secretary of State for India.

* * The Government-General in Council resolves that the discretionary power of withholding petitions under clause 4, Rule XII of the Rules for the Government, except, will have no effect in the case of memorials and other papers of the memorialist addressed to His Majesty the King, the Secretary of State, or to the Viceroy.

Memorials in favour of State for India, as persons present at the House of Commons, should be sent with certain, and duly certified statements of the facts of each case. Having regard to the constitution and character of the Indian subordinate civil service, memorials submitted there should be referred to the Viceroy, and if it is found that, under such circumstances, any person should be allowed to take part in making resolutions, further when, in numerous cases, that representation made the Secretary of State through confidential channels, it is considered that he should be in the position as one to deal with them, instead of being obliged, as may now be the case, to refer the memorials to the Secretary. Such petitions, therefore, should not be withheld when there is any reasonable prospect of influence being obtained at the Secretary of State in favour of the Government of India, or when they contain a reference to such influence. (Laid on table 2nd September 1922.)

The Standard Barometer and Thermometer are read at 8 a.m., 12 a.m., 4 p.m. and 8 p.m. and the daily mean are obtained by the application of hourly corrections, derived from twenty years' observations. The centre of the Barometer is twenty-two feet above the level of the sea, and the observer of the rain gauge is ten feet from the ground. The wind, rain and general weather reported are for the current Civil Day—from midnight to midnight.

The total quantity of rain collected since January 1st 1912 is 1.45 inches, the average day for the same period being 0.18 inches.
